in the UK and overseas

BIG CITY LIGHTS

Escape to the Big Apple with two new developments in the heart of the city. One Wall Street (above) dates back to 1931; these former offices have been transformed into 566 apartments, with high ceilings, lots of natural light and an enormous reception area steeped in art-deco glamour. Another art-deco masterpiece is the Waldorf Astoria – once the biggest hotel in the world, and still one of New York's architectural gems. Famous former guests include Marilyn Monroe and Frank Sinatra – make your stay permanent, with 375 residences in addition to the revamped hotel, opening in 2023.

A PIECE OF PARIS

If you're dreaming of a pied-à-terre or a grand appartement in the City of Light, then VINGT Paris can help. Acting as a go-to advisor for both French and international clients, the estate agency can assist in everything from sales to acting as a buying agent, as well as offering rental management and interior decoration services for homes not just in the capital, but across France. Led by its British founder, Susie Hollands, VINGT Paris is adept at finding the perfect property, no matter how hot the market.

HOME COMFORTS, HOTEL STYLE

From Chelsea mews houses to Middle Eastern palaces, Bergman Design House has worked on a variety of properties in both the residential and the commercial spheres. Among its most exciting new projects are the first two outposts of The Other House, a new residents' club, which is a cross between a hotel, serviced apartments and private rentals, positioning itself as a home from home for its globetrotting guests. Bergman Design House is creating characterful and welcoming interiors in the South Kensington and Covent Garden properties, the first of which is opening this spring.

CENTRAL SPOT

Occupying a distinctive, wedge-shaped site in the middle of London's Fitzrovia, 101 on Cleveland is a new development consisting of a trio of buildings that house 88 apartments, ranging between one and three bedrooms. Residents can enjoy a wide range of amenities, such as the private dining room and residents' bar, which has been designed to evoke the atmosphere of a private members' club. There's also a screening room, so you have a cinema on your doorstep, and a business suite that offers that much-needed work space if you're not in the office.
